IN THE MATTER OF

VALLEY GROWERS COOPERATIVE, et al.

CASE NO: 84-WPA-9

ORDER TO SHOW CAUSE

On November 25, 1983, the complainants in this case, Valley Growers Cooperative, Inc., Milton, New York; Mid-Hudson Growers Cooperative, Inc., Highland, New York; Northwest Growers Cooperative, Inc., Wilson, New York; Niagara Orchards, Burt, New York; K & W Farms, Albion, New York; Gunnison Lakeshore Orchards, Crown Point, New York; Forrence Orchards, Inc., Peru, New York; Northern Orchard Co., Inc., Peru, New York; Sullivan Orchards, Peru, New York; Orchardale Fruit Farm, Waterport, New York; Al Gioia & Sons, Hilton, New York; Lamont Fruit Farm, Albion, New York; Lake Ontario Fruit Sales, Inc., Lockport, New York; and Apple Acres, Lafayette, New York, through their attorney, S. Steven Karalekas, requested a hearing in regard to the Department's determination that they were ineligible to apply for temporary labor certification in 1984. I have recently been informed by DOL's Employment and Training Administration that subsequently the complainants were permitted to file for certification, and pursuant to such applications they did in fact hire aliens for the 1984 growing season.

Under these circumstances, it appears that this case is moot. Therefore, the complainants are ORDERED TO SHOW CAUSE, no later than July 12, 1985, why this case should not be dismissed.
